Ten Good Reasons for Choosing a SHEDA Distributor

- 1 SHEDA is the leading trade association for storage and materials handling specialist distribution companies in the UK.
- 2 SHEDA provides a stamp of professionalism and quality for customers to buy from with confidence.
- 3 SHEDA members are independent of manufacturers – they design a scheme that works for you.
- 4 The SHEDA logo differentiates members by confirming that they are committed to industry codes and manufacturers' design standards.
- 5 Support and advice is available to SHEDA members on issues such as current regulations, health and safety and industry matters. It provides financial assistance for each member to access a Health & Safety audit.
- 6 SHEDA provides a nationwide network of experienced professionals.
- 7 SHEDA members commit themselves to best practice in the design, supply and installation of storage and materials handling equipment.
- 8 SHEDA contributes to the debate on relevant issues and the development of new standards and codes of practice within the industry.
- 9 SHEDA liaises closely with other industry bodies including SEMA to provide a voice for its members in discussions on industry matters.
- 10 SHEDA provides a network for members to share issues and support each other nationally including regular industry information, technical support and training opportunities to its members.
